Initial Meeting Voted Success!

Initial Membership Set at 27!

Patrick Sponsel
AELA correspondent

The inaugural meeting on August 13, 2003 at McDuffy's was well-attended by local and out-of-state equipment leasing companies. While the downtown Tempe and ASU University venue provides a festive atmosphere, audible conversations were at a premium.

Over 30 people attended this event and networking extravaganza.

Plaques were Given Out!

The first 4 paid members were presented a plaque for prepayment of their initial annual dues. They were M&C Leasing, MoneyWorx of Phoenix, Santa Barbara Bank and Trust, and Specialty Leasing Group.

Spring Meeting to be held at Scottsdale Stadium for annual spring training funders exhibition in March.

What's in it for me?

By joining the local association of equipment leasing professionals, you'll receive the opportunity to gain eye to eye contact and relationships with professionals in this industry that you share common issues and concerns with. You'll gain perspectives on the national meetings that you may wish to attend, products and processes that work or haven't worked for other organizations, new funding sources locally and nationally, recognition within your local lending community, contact with leading professionals in the equipment leasing industry. The dues are minimal and the organization's purpose is solely to provide communication venues for the leasing community with in the state of Arizona.
